FROM THE PRESS

// Hollman's sheer drive to go above and beyond to make his company the best it could possibly be at the beginning has essentially become the foundation of the way the company operates today— no locker will be deemed complete unless it is the most innovative, functional and unique locker that can possibly be created."

-AOL FINANCE

// Hollman began capitalizing on the new demand for lockers that could take an athletic beating while looking fabulous. Two decades later, Hollman controls 70% of the "nonmetal" portion of this billion dollar locker market."

-FASTCOMPANY MAGAZINE
